

Thunder Ride to the Wall...

Team AEDC members leave the main gate for the Thunder Ride to The Moving Wall exhibit in Tullahoma. (Photos by David Housch)

Honoring those who gave their all...

The pledge of allegiance preceded remarks by Colonel Eichhorn and guests at The Moving Vietnam Memorial Wall and exhibits honoring Vietnam veterans.

This half-scale replica of the Vietnam Memorial Wall was on display in Tullahoma through July 10. It travels the United States from April through November, exhibiting in 23 - 28 cities. John Devitt, a former Army helicopter gunner for the 1st Air Cavalry and Vietnam veteran of the 1968 Tet Offensive, built the replica known as The Moving Wall. Two Moving Walls now tour the U.S. Like their original counterpart in Washington, more names are added as the fate of more Vietnam MIAs and POWs comes to light. (Photos by David Housch)

The AEDC Honor Guard presents the colors during the opening ceremonies for The Moving Wall and other displays memorializing Vietnam veterans.

ArnoldCommunity Council President Tim Sanders, waits under the shelter of a large umbrella at AEDC's front gate for cyclists to assemble for the "Thunder Ride to The Moving Wall."

AEDC Commander Col. David J. Eichhorn and more than 20 center personnel braved a hard rain July 10 to make the "Thunder Ride to The Moving Wall," honoring the men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice in the Vietnam Conflict. The Moving Wall and other related exhibits, were on display at the South Jackson Civic Center in Tullahoma.

Colonel Eichhorn spoke about the supreme sacrifice made by America's military men and women during the Vietnam Conflict.